Our Order of Service

The Divine Service will follow Setting One, beginning on page 151 in Lutheran Service Book. The bulletin insert provides the parts of the service that are specific to today, The Feast of All Saints.

Visitors to the Lord's Table

On All Saints Day we remember those who have been called to heaven and especially how richly God blessed them with faith and with its fulfillment. Death does not separate us from them, and our praise is joined with theirs as we worship the Lamb who was slain. As we receive the Lord's Supper today, we also recall that He who is here with His body and blood is at the same time hosting the feast of victory in heaven. Until we join in that feast, the most loving thing we can do for all people is to set forth the truth of God's Word. For this reason we practice closed communion, and guests are asked to speak with the pastor to arrange for a time of instruction before joining us in the Lord's Supper.

LCC TogetherOne – A Conversation for Your Congregation
Consider the following questions:

- Where do we see the Lord opening doors for the Gospel?
- Who are the people around us who may have never heard the Gospel, or who have become disconnected from the Church?
- What kind of church do we want to leave to the next generation?
- What will our children and grandchildren need from us to remain faithful to Christ and His Word?
- How can we ensure, to the best of our ability, that faithful Lutheran teaching, preaching, and sacramental ministry continues for generations to come?
- How can our congregation participate in the mission of our Synod beyond our own walls?
- What might Christ accomplish through us if we faithfully use the gifts He has entrusted to us?

Together One gives us an opportunity to remember that we are not simply individual congregations. We are a Synod—a fellowship of congregations walking together in a common confession and mission. One congregation may have a need that another can help meet. One congregation may have resources that another lacks. One congregation may be positioned to reach a community that another cannot.
