Lutheran Church-Canada Convention... Some Election Results

The Rev. David Haberstock of Winnipeg MB has been elected the next LCC President, as Rev. Dr. Timothy Teuscher is entering retirement. The convention and several international guests expressed thanks to God for Dr. Teuscher's faithful service.

Rev. Ted Giese of Regina SK has been elected LCC Vice-President.

Rev. Aaron Gust of Regina SK has been elected the Central Regional Pastor.

Rev. Marvin Bublitz of St. Thomas ON was re-elected the East Regional Pastor.

Rev. Michael Schutz of Penticton BC was elected West Regional Pastor.

Lutheran Church-Canada Convention... Fellowship Resolutions

We received St. Matthew's Lutheran Church, Cornwall ON into the membership of Lutheran Church-Canada.

Following President's Teuscher's announcement to the Lutheran Church of Australia New Zealand at their October 2024 convention, LCC in convention has now officially recognized that we are no longer in altar and pulpit fellowship with the LCA NZ because of their departure from the clear teachings of Holy Scripture.

However, we have now officially recognized fellowship with the Lutheran Mission-Australia, comprised of those pastors and congregations that stood faithful to the Word of God and have left the LCA NZ to continue on as the Confessional Lutheran Church body in Australia.

We have also officially recognized fellowship with the Lutheran Church in the Philippines.

Concordia Lutheran Theological Seminary 50th Anniversary... Oct 19-21

CLTS St. Catharines has announced the celebration of its 50th Anniversary during the 2026-2027 academic year. Marking a half-century of theological education and service to the Church, the seminary will host a series of events centred on the theme “Forming the Future.” The theme signals the seminary’s commitment to theological truths of the Evangelical Lutheran Church while equipping future pastors and church leaders for the evolving cultural landscape of the 21st century.

Registration is now open for the highlight event of the anniversary year. This three-day festival features a multi-faceted programme designed to engage the Lutheran community, including: Seminary Open House; Alumni Reunion; Festival Service; and Theological Conference. Titled “Respectful Theological Dialogue in the Internet Age”, this conference will explore the challenges and opportunities of maintaining faithful theological conversations in a digital world.

The conference is open to pastors, church workers, and laity. To accommodate an international audience, the event will be held at the Americana Resort & Spa in Niagara Falls, providing a beautiful backdrop for study and fellowship.

Conference attendance is fully funded for pastors and deacons of Lutheran Church-Canada’s East Region. A variety of paid registration options is available for other guests. See the event page for further information and registration links: www.concordia-seminary.ca.
